Island Park Beer Garden Continues This Weekend

Featuring Family Fun Day on Saturday

Racine, WI – The City of Racine’s Island Park Beer Garden returns for its second weekend, July 18–20, along the banks of the Root River, offering craft beer, local food trucks, and live music in one of the city’s most picturesque park settings. As a special feature, Family Fun Day will take place on Saturday, July 19, from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m., offering a full afternoon of free activities for families and children of all ages.

The Beer Garden is hosted by the City of Racine Parks, Recreation and Cultural Services (PRCS) in partnership with Perspective Brewing, and will be open:

- Friday, July 18: 4–8 p.m.
– Food Truck: Taqueria la Vecindad
- Saturday, July 19: 12–8 p.m.
– Food Truck: Double Dubs
- Sunday, July 20: 12–6 p.m.
– Food Truck: Shorty’s Grilled Cheese

Family Fun Day, organized by PRCS in collaboration with Root River Council, takes place during the Saturday beer garden hours and is open to all ages.

Family Fun Day Highlights Include:

- FREE lunch at noon (while supplies last)
- Culver’s frozen custard
- Kickball, pickleball, and classic yard games
- Face painting and balloon art
- Racine Theatre Guild interactive activities
- Dog park fun and kid-friendly booths
- Fire trucks, police cruisers, transit buses, library van, parks vehicles, and more
- Raffle tickets for a chance to win one of two electric bicycles (drawn at National Night Out)
- Special appearances by Mayor Cory Mason and McGruff the Crime Dog

Live music will run throughout the weekend, with food trucks and beverages available during all beer garden hours.

Admission is free and open to the public. Guests are encouraged to bring lawn chairs or blankets and enjoy the full park experience.
