

Proclamation

CITY OF RACINE, WISCONSIN

WHEREAS, school counselors are employed in public and private schools to help students reach their full potential; and

WHEREAS, school counselors are actively committed to helping students explore their abilities, strengths, interests and talents as these traits relate to career awareness and development; and

WHEREAS, school counselors help families focus on ways to further the academic, career and social/emotional development of their children; and

WHEREAS, school counselors work with teachers and other educators to help students explore their potential and set realistic goals for themselves; and

WHEREAS, school counselors seek to identify and utilize community resources that can enhance and complement comprehensive school counseling programs and help students become productive members of society; and

WHEREAS, comprehensive school counseling programs are considered an integral part of the educational process that enables all students to achieve success in school.

WHEREAS, the Racine Unified School District is strengthened by the dedication of dozens of professional school counselors serving students from Pre-K through 12th grade, providing daily support to Racine's children and families through academic guidance, social-emotional care, and college and career readiness.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Cory Mason, Mayor of the City of Racine, do hereby proclaim February 2-6, 2006, as National School Counseling Week.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Racine to be affixed.

Accomplished at the City Hall

this 2nd day of February 2026.

Cory Mason
